WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

Thank you for volunteering to teach Special Religious Education (SRE) in your Parish.

NSW government legislation provides various religious denominations with the opportunity to teach religious education to the students attending government schools.

Time is set aside in the school timetable for religious education classes to take place once a week. The time allocated can vary slightly between schools but for the majority of schools the lesson is half an hour.

'Teaching SRE is an educational process aimed at helping the students learn about their particular faith.' (Taken from "Teacher's Pet" by Mark Hillis p 7 1995)

Part of the requirement of SRE is that volunteers receive training to develop skills and techniques in teaching children. This introduction today will prepare you to go into a classroom for the first time and lead you into the Accreditation Course that you will undertake later this year.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) is a worldwide organization designed to further the religious education of children. It began around 1556 and was promulgated to be established in every parish throughout the world by Pope Pius X in 1905. In Australia Cardinal Gilroy, in 1959, linked the many organizations doing catechetical works within a central archdiocese Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Following the establishment of the Parramatta Diocese, a Diocesan CCD was established by Bishop Bede Heather on the 15 June, 1987. Its primary aim is to assist the bishop to undertake the religious education and faith formation of Catholic students attending NSW Government schools.

PRAYER

OPENING PRAYER

Leader: Lord, you call us to this ministry of Special Religious Education to share in the Church's mission of spreading the Gospel. We ask you to bless our gathering. May today's session help us grow in readiness to use our gifts and talents at the service of your son through this ministry. We ask you this in Jesus' name. Amen
Let us listen to God's word.

READING

A reading from the Gospel of Mark (Mark 9:33-37)

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

The Word of the Lord.

R Thanks be to God.

Please pause for a moment and reflect on the Gospel reading.

REFLECTION

Jesus tells us that little children are welcome to come to him and not to stop them (Mt 19:14). We are called to serve the children and youth in our state schools. We strive to welcome them as we would welcome Christ, and to help them learn and grow as His disciples.

God knows our work isn't always easy. We are constantly challenged by influences beyond our control. Thankfully, we are not alone in our Ministry. Jesus is with us as a people gathered in His name - strengthening us with the wisdom and courage of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus tells us that love of God and love of children are woven together in mystery. As we reflect on our call to serve the children in our parish schools in the faith, we can take comfort in knowing that our efforts will help them grow in knowledge and love of God.

No effort to reach out to a child ever goes to waste, and in God's eyes, no kindness toward them is ever forgotten. As SREs we plant seeds of faith which with God's grace will bear fruit at some stage in their lives.

LET US TAKE A MINUTE TO REFLECT ON OUR OWN CALL TO BECOME AN SRE TEACHER/HELPER:

Why was I drawn to this Ministry?

What message do I want the students to take with them?

What challenges do I feel I may face?

Conclude the prayer by choosing from one of the following suggested hymns:

God has Chosen Me - Bernadette Farrell

Christ be our Light - Bernadette Farrell

One Body in Christ - Amanda McKenna

or other

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine consists of a united group who are mainly volunteers, dedicated and committed to Special Religious Education in State Schools.

We strive to ensure that Catholic children attending Primary, Secondary and Special Education State schools and their families have an opportunity to hear the Good News, to develop a relationship with God and to feel welcomed and valued members of the Church community.

We endeavour, by our living of gospel values, to nourish and support the faith development of the children and their families.

We will strive to transform unjust structures which impede our mission and we seek the challenge of discovering alternate ministries whenever and wherever needs emerge.

We accept the responsibility of continually calling each other to ongoing formation and commitment to mission.

We value the opportunity to work alongside other denominational groups in common commitment to children in State schools.

- Why do we say sorry?
- When do friends forgive each other?
- What did Jesus teach us about forgiveness?

CD Player – Our Father CD

- Zacchaeus Song

Bring the students to the awareness that often it is very hard to like some people because of the way that they act and the way they treat others. Jesus felt very sorry for people who were unpopular and tried to help them.

Jesus wanted them to change and to be better people. When Jesus helped these people by reaching out in friendship and forgiving them he not only made things right between them and God, but also between them and others.

HELPFUL ADVICE

ON ARRIVAL AT SCHOOL

- Arrive at the school at least ten minutes before the lesson if possible.
- Go to the office and sign in using either the school SRE attendance book or the electronic sign in process (depending which system your school uses)
- Be punctual to the classroom as the children should not be left alone.
- Be prepared - even over prepared for your lesson.
- Children learn in different ways so try and engage them all.
- Vary ways of doing the same thing in your lessons — rather than saying prayers each week use music; rather than reading the story each week use ‘Echo Mimes’ where the story is told using actions and the children repeat the story and actions after you; tell the story using puppets; use Godly Play or Catechesis of the God Shepherd storytelling methods or Biblical Figures just to name a few ways.
- Remember to include prayer in your lesson - by singing or reciting the prayer; whether it is at the beginning, the middle or the end of the lesson - remember to encourage the children to participate in a reflective, prayerful manner.

YOUR FIRST SPECIAL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION LESSON

1. Introduce yourself to the children.
2. Discuss some rules for the class with the children.
3. Use positive language, e.g. ‘Listen when others are speaking’ rather than ‘Don’t talk while others are speaking.’
4. Teach the behaviour you want. If the children do something you aren’t happy with tell them and teach them what you expect. Always practice this with the students.
5. Give instructions clearly and slowly and only one at a time.
6. Don’t allow the children to railroad the lesson. They will want to tell you their life stories. Keep them on task.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

- Be enthusiastic about the students’ questions. Be glad they asked.
- Commend them for using the good minds that God gave them to find out about the truth.
- Encourage them to keep asking questions. Remember that questions give us valuable insight into their thinking and understanding.
- Treat all questions seriously.
- Affirm that it is good to ask questions.
- Give simple answers and stick to the point.
- Ask students ‘What do they think?’
- Give the students more information if they are unsatisfied with the answer.
- Ask the student to restate the question if you think you have misunderstood what is being asked.
- Use simple concepts and language that is age appropriate.
- If you don’t know the answer tell them that you will try to find out and invite their participation in finding the answer.
- It is better to say that you don’t know than to invent an answer or say something that you know to be wrong .
- Always give time for the students to answer a question rather than answer your own question. The students will learn to wait for you to provide the answers.

WHAT DO YOU DO WHEN:

1. A student suggests an answer that is incorrect:
 - Affirm that it was good for the student to offer an answer.
 - Suggest that the student considers something from the lesson that will help them see the correct answer.
 - Clarify any misunderstanding before you move on.
2. No-one offers an answer:
 - Give the class some extra information that will help
 - Retell the section of the lesson that contains the answer
 - Tell them the answer and move on with the rest of the lesson
3. A student's answer is very lengthy:
 - Affirm that the answer is thoughtful but that others in the class should also have a chance to answer.
 - Suggest to the student that you talk to them later (don't forget to do so)
4. A student begins to give you personal details or information that is not appropriate:
 - Follow the Notification Process for Catholic SRE.

SPECIAL POINTS OF INTEREST:

- The SRE program is called Christ Our Light and Life. There is a teacher's manual to work from.
- Each child will receive an activity book. They will receive a note from the parish requesting payment for the book. Collect the money and return it to the parish office.
- Children are given a book whether they have paid their money or not.
- Ask the teacher in the classroom for a place to keep the books rather than carrying them back to school each week.

CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

Preparing your lessons well helps with the management of your class.

- Be organised
- Try not to cover too much in each lesson
- Keep it simple
- Keep it do-able
- Expect good behaviour and neat work – acknowledge it when it happens
- Calmly insist that reasonable standards are met.
- Calmly persist until they are.
- Above all radiate enthusiasm joy and calm.

SCHOOL POLICIES

- Become familiar with the school's discipline policy.
- Familiarise yourself with the school's evacuation policy and procedures.
- Familiarise yourself with the school's policy in dealing with difficult students.
- Make use of the school's reward program e.g. merit cards, points system etc.
- Teach the behaviour you expect from the children in your class.
 - To raise their hand before speaking
 - To raise their hand before moving in the room
 - To wait for your response.
- Practise and reward these expectations when they are carried out.
- Respond to good behaviour so that students begin to understand that you will give them the attention they want from you when they behave well.
- Have a few simple rules:
 - We will raise our hand before speaking.
 - All eyes on the person speaking
- Keep instructions simple and ensure all eyes are focused on you when giving these instructions.

USING PRAISE EFFECTIVELY

- Get to know the children by name (name tag) and use it when speaking to them.
- When students are working on an activity move about the room and praise or encourage them to continue the good work they have started.
- Catch them 'doing good' and praise them for it:
 - Mary, I like the way you raise your hand and await your turn.
 - Blake, you have really tried hard with your find-a-word, well done.
- Always speak courteously and with respect to students when speaking to them, remembering "We are all made in God's image and likeness".

Also remember to:

- Have some useful activities that can be used in spare five minute periods or for children who work quickly and finish before others.
- Ask for advice and support, when needed, from your parish coordinator or the school appointed coordinator.

THE ABC OF SRE

Always be early for your class.

Be careful never to be alone with only one or two students .

Class rules/expectations must be discussed and set in your first SRE lesson of the year, always with reference to the school rules/expectations.

Do find out about school policies covering rolls, behaviour management, mobile phone policy, lock down and emergency procedures etc.

Enure additional resource materials are in line with the approved curriculum (COLAL).

Form good working relationships with scripture teachers from other denominations and staff at the school.

Go with confidence into your class knowing God is always with us.

Helpers in the classroom are God's gift to teachers.

In all lessons adhere to the approved curriculum - COLAL .

Just ignore the temptation to give out lollies or food to the students as they may cause an allergic reaction.

Know your students' world. Take an interest by noticing special events that are taking place at their school .

Learn your student's and class teacher's names

Make sure you are aware of and follow the parish procedure if you are unable to teach/assist your lesson.

Never take photos of the students in your class without the written permission of school and the parents.

Other visual resources should be organised well in advance. All DVDs/videos/You Tube clips, must firstly be viewed by yourself and approved by the school SRE Co-ordinator before being viewed by the students.

Pray and prepare your lessons well - the work put into preparation will be rewarded in the classroom.

Questions are important to achieve high student involvement. They also foster self esteem by your encouragement.

Remember to wear your Authorisation Card and lanyard as well as name badge while at the school.

Self reflection is the way we review the effectiveness of our lessons and suggest new ideas to include in future lessons.

Teaching is about relationships- we are building relationships with our students and this is the basis of effective communication of the Gospel message. Be mindful to teach with sensitivity and age appropriateness.

Understand that students learn and respond in different ways and at different speeds, therefore be mindful of students with additional needs.

Visual resources will make the lesson brighter and more interesting. Displaying images is a powerful way to build student engagement and boost learning ensuring any visuals are age appropriate.

When there are issues of disruptive behaviours try positive reinforcement techniques and ask for assistance.

Xplain clearly the behaviour you expect from your students and always give clear instructions.

You always need to remember that parents are the first and principal educators of their children in their faith.

Zeal and zest inspired by the Holy Spirit makes this ministry vibrant.

ROLE OF SRE HELPER

An SRE Helper/Assistant is someone who journeys with a SRE Teacher. They can participate in the lesson, assist the students and provide support as necessary.

The role of the Helper/Assistant will be negotiated between the SRE Teacher and the Helper/Assistant and may include:

- Leading the class in prayer
- Marking the class roll
- Distributing Student Activity Books
- Assisting students with their book work or activities, eg. craft
- Assisting with technology, eg CD player, data projector etc
- When appropriate, assisting with reading in class
- Demonstrating actions for a song or drama
- In collaboration with the SRE Teacher nominating children for merit awards
- In collaboration with the SRE Teacher planning the lesson
- When confident, assisting in the presentation of the lesson
- Evaluating the lesson with the SRE Teacher following the lesson

SRE Helpers/Assistants should be provided with a copy of the Teacher's Manual and Student Activity books for the class they are helping/assisting. The SRE Teacher should provide the lesson plan to the Helper/Assistant so they have an awareness of what will be taught during each lesson.

SRE Helpers/Assistants are encouraged to attend the CCD Level 1 Accreditation Course. Upon completion of the course a Helper/Assistant could fulfill all the duties of an SRE Teacher and teach an SRE class on their own, if they choose.

An SRE Helper/Assistant may choose to remain a Helper/Assistant and not take on the responsibility of teaching a class. This decision remains the choice of the Helper/Assistant. However, should a Helper/Assistant make this decision, the Level One Training must be undertaken.

NSW GOVERNMENT – DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION GUIDELINES

RESPONSIBILITIES OF PROVIDERS

Reference: <http://bit.ly/2CCSSRW>

1. The authorisation of personnel to teach SRE is the sole responsibility of each individual religious persuasion. The persuasions are not to authorise any person as a SRE teacher who has not obtained a Working With Children Check that has been verified by the Diocese of Parramatta or who has a criminal conviction for:
 - a crime against a minor; or
 - violence; or
 - sexual assault; or
 - the provision of prohibited drugs.
2. It is the responsibility of each persuasion to provide sufficient SRE teachers. The relevant representative of the religious persuasion should inform the principal when SRE teachers are unavailable.
3. It is the responsibility of the approved religious persuasion to:
 - a) authorise representatives to teach SRE
 - b) authorise materials and pedagogy used by SRE teachers
 - c) ensure that the school is provided with a list of the names, date of birth and Authorisation Card numbers of authorised SRE teachers.
 - d) provide information about the content of lessons when requested by parents/caregivers.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SRE TRAINING AND FORMATION

Sharing faith with others is a great responsibility, and it requires the development of special skills and knowledge.

In an address to a plenary assembly in April 1992, Blessed Pope John Paul II stated that:

'To set high standards (for catechist training) means both to provide a thorough basic training and to keep it constantly updated. This is a fundamental duty, in order to ensure qualified personnel for the Church's mission, with good training programs and adequate structures, providing for all aspects of formation – human, spiritual, doctrinal, apostolic and professional.'

As a person of faith, SREs (catechists) hand on the tradition and teaching of the Catholic Church to students. As a result, anyone planning on being involved in the SRE ministry will be required to participate in Training (Minimum Level 1).

CCD Parramatta offers numerous opportunities for skills training, personal growth and faith formation. Please take advantage of the Training Courses, Reflection days and In-services on offer.

Please contact your parish co-ordinator or the CCD office for details.
